Kelly Pearce Named PBC Women's Golfer of the Week

Posted: Sep 22, 2011

SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University junior Kelly Pearce has been named the Peach Belt Conference Women's Golfer of the Week, announced Thursday by league officials.

Pearce became the first Armstrong women's golfer to shoot a subpar round, carding a two-under-par 70 at the Mercer Eat-A-Peach Invitational on Monday, helping the Lady Pirates to a third-place finish. Her round helped Armstrong shoot a team-record 305 score and Pearce finished the tournament with a two-day 156 total, tying for eighth individually.

A native of Albany, Ga., Pearce's round of 70 eclipsed the previous Armstrong low round of 73, set by Katherine Hooks on Feb. 9, 2008, at the Kiawah Island Invitational. She is only the second Armstrong women's golfer to earn PBC Player of the Week honors, joining teammate Victoria Bennett, who earned the honor in 2009.

Pearce and the Lady Pirates return to action on Monday, October 3, competing in the 12th Annual Myrtle Beach Intercollegiate, hosted by Lenoir-Rhyne
